Profile:

Michael A. Faerber is the Managing Partner of the law firm, McMillan Metro, P.C. He has spent the last 30 years representing builders, developers and all other types of businesses in real estate and business transactions, land use matters, formation of condominium, homeowners and commercial associations and other development related documents for real estate projects, including front foot benefits, throughout the Maryland/DC/Virginia area. In addition, Michael has represented hundreds of commercial landlords and tenants negotiating commercial leases for such uses as general office, medical, restaurant, retail and warehouse. As part of representing his clients on all types of real estate related matters as noted above, Michael brings a practical business sense to his legal services, providing clients with goal-oriented results. He has been involved with the Maryland Building Industry Association (MBIA) and its predecessor, the Maryland National Capital Building Industry Association (MNCBIA) for virtually all of his 30 years of professional life, is a Life Director and has worked on and chaired numerous committees. Michael is also actively involved with the International Council of Shopping Centers, National Association of Home Builders, the Restaurant Association of Maryland and the Potomac Chamber of Commerce.
