Profile:

Heather L. Sunderman is an Associate with McMillan Metro, P.C. with a focus on estate planning and estate administration as well as Partnership Planning. Heather enjoys working with clients to ensure their family's futures are secure, whether they are getting their first estate plan in place, assisting with estate or trust administration or helping to protect assets in case of divorce. She has developed long term relationships with clients, which allows her to alert them to changes in the law that may impact their plans. Heather is admitted to practice in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia and focuses on the area of wills, trusts, estate planning, probate, guardianships and family law. A native of the Pittsburgh area, she graduated from Allegheny College in Meadville, Pennsylvania and received her J.D. from the Washington College of Law (American University). She is trained as a mediator and collaborative law practitioner. She has been appointed by courts to represent disabled persons in guardianship matters and children in contested custody matter, and has litigated cases in many different areas of the law, including divorce, guardianships, domestic violence and civil disputes. She is also a member of the Maryland State Bar Association and the Bar Association of Montgomery County, Maryland.
